UNIVERSITY PLAYERS TO GIVE MAUGHAM'S "THE CONSTANT WIFE"

Two Casts To Appear On Different Nights

The University Players, under the direction of Dr. Rose, will present "The Constant Wife" by W. Somerset Maugham, on April 27 and 29 at the High School Auditorium. Admission is free to students and general public, and all those who wish to see how the same role may be competently interpreted in different ways by different people will come to both performances; both casts have entered thoroughly into the spirit of the play. Come early if you want a good seat. The performance will begin promptly at 8:15.

The cast for April 27 is: Alyce Davidson, Edwin Cook, Don Maglott, Helen Taylor, Ruth Heitzman, Janet McCann, Rita Haskins, W. C. Jansen, Robert Rohrbaugh. The cast for April 29 is: Jeanette Seiss, J. W. Jordan, Ralph Meyer, Geneva Shealy, Winona Shade, Pauline Harrison, Marie Lutz, Paul Powell, Robert Rohrbaugh. The ushers for the two nights are: Mary V. Miller, Maebelle David, Jane DeBoer, Zetta Druschel, Ruth Emmitt, Helen Hall, Evelyn Kubach, Elizabeth Neuman, Florence O'Bryant, Elizabeth Chaney, Dorothy Fortman, Virginia Frances, Marie Fritsche, Virginia Frye, Bernita Gillespie, Minnie Roode, Betty Shirk, Marie Wyper, Marcus Chilcote, Norman King, Jack Myers, John Park, Richard

Brichner To Speak At Commencement Exercises

Dr. Williams has secured Rabbi Barnett R. Brichner, Ph. D. of the Euclid Ave. Temple, Cleveland, for the Commencement address. Dr. Brichner is a well known scholar and speaker, and the University is fortunate in securing him for this occasion.

The Commencement exercises will be held on Monday, June 7 at 10 a. m. There will be an academic procession as usual. This is always an interesting and colorful affair.

Mock Mob Meets En Masse

We were—and we were hung—almost! The staid, dignified, intelligent? members of Emerson became members of a howling, blind, blood-thirsty mob. John Doe of X-ville, after dodging the law for eight years, was arrested on suspicion—and held in the local jail, charged with kidnapping a chee-ild. He was being held on circumstantial evidence—but not for long. "Oh no," said Emersonians—transformed for the hour into raging citizens of X-ville. "We'll lynch the bird!"

The meeting was called to

Peace Meeting Draws Large Group

Play Is Impressive

The Community Mass meeting on Peace last Sunday evening, aroused the interest of a large group made up of both college students and local citizens.

The panel discussion, presided over by Judge Ray Ladd, brought out many views on the subject of Peace. Dr. Ruth Bourne spoke on the vagaries of neutrality; Dr. W. A. Zaugg questioned the validity of the Isolation principle; Judge Ladd discussed the need of preparedness; the Rev. Mr. Walborn suggested the easing of economic tensions; Mrs. M. L. Hanna presented a favorable view on international cooperation.

Ethel G. Rockwell's "All We Like Sheep," presented by special arrangement with the Walter Baker Play Company, was unusually impressive. It was smoothly and effectively given. Much credit is due Mrs. Leon E. Fauley for her energetic and able direction.

New Catalogue Sent To Printers

Material for the new annual catalogue for 1936-37 and announcements for 1937-38 was completed this week and will be sent to the printers immediately. The estimated size of this catalogue is one hundred thirty-six pages.

It provides for the addition of new courses in several departments and contemplates the addition of several new instructors. The expansion of departments and the number of new instructors which can be added will depend upon the outcome of the biennial budget. The budget has passed the House of Representatives and is now being considered by the Senate.

A new graduate bulletin has been prepared and is now in the hands of the printers.

Delhi Formal Enjoyed at Toledo

The most colorful and largest formal of the school year was given last Saturday at the Heatherdowns Country Club near Toledo. It was the eleventh annual dance of the Delhi fraternity. Approaching, the woodland grounds surrounding the club formed a delightful setting for the beautiful club house with its glow of amber lights.

At eight o'clock in the main room of the country club house a duck dinner was served. Following the dinner clever speeches were given by the chaperones and alumni with the fraternity's president, Allen Bishop, presiding as toastmaster.

Following the speeches, Stan Hesselbard and his Sylvan Serenaders played for the two hundred guests from ten till two. The attractiveness of the lovely ballroom was enhanced by the adjoining lounges. An addition to the huge dance floor was a beautiful moon-lit porch for dancers. Around the side of the ballroom was a tastefully furnished balcony.

The program were fashioned of four-ply maple and walnut wood. The words "Delhi Formal '37" were carved into the maple cover and a triangular walnut emblem appeared in the left hand corner. The center sections were formed of walnut enclosing the paper sections of dance arrangements. All was bound together with golden links from which hung a purple and gold cord and tassel.

The representatives from the school organizations were: Skol, Margaret Hurlburt; Seven Sisters, Ruth Howell; Five Brother, Karl Karg; Commoner, Charles Blazer.

The chaperones of the dance were Dr. Clare Martin, Prof. and Mrs. B. B. Quillan, Dr. and Mrs. Harshman and Mr. and Mrs. Berry, the Fraternity's guardians.

Chapter Of K. M. E. To Be First Local In Ohio

A chapter of Kappa Mu Epsilon, national honorary mathematics fraternity, will be installed on the campus of Bowling Green State University. It will be installed on April 24 at the Woman's Club by Miss Edith I. Atkin of Illinois State Normal University of Normal, Ill. As it is the first chapter to be installed in Ohio, it will be known as the Ohio Alpha chapter.

As this is a national fraternity, its purpose is not only to stimulate interest in mathematics and social fellowship among students in a particular institution but also between institutions. It is through the efforts of Dr. Ogg that this organization has granted a chapter to our institution.

MARY LOUISE LANE

LANE IS FIRST IN NATIONAL CONTEST

The Pi Xi chapter of Beta Pi Theta is very proud of Miss Mary Louise Lane who has recently won national honors for this local chapter which was organized in 1935. Beta Pi Theta, a national honorary French fraternity, each year holds an essay writing contest. This year Miss Lane's essay won first place in the nation.

The essay was to be between 2,000 and 5,000 words, original composition in French. Miss Lane's essay was entitled, "The Heroines of Racine". By winning first prize in the nation she will receive a Beta Pi Theta ring. This ring can not be bought even by members of the fraternity but is given only as an award by the national committee.

Requirements Raised By Book and Motor

The Book and Motor Society met last Monday afternoon at four o'clock for the purpose of electing new members to the organization.

The first business was the adopting of amendments to the constitution which set new method of electing members. Required point average was raised to 3.4 from 3.2.

Changes were also made to suit the change in type of institution. After debating on both sides, it was unanimously voted to adopt the new provisions.

In accordance with the regulations Dr. Zaugg presented the names of those eligible for membership. After discussion, an individual vote was taken with the result that the following student members were elected: Margaret Billings, Edna Siewart, Dorothy Robertson, and Harold Frum. Mr. Crowley was the faculty member elected.

The new members will be initiated into the organization at the Formal dinner which will be held at the Woman's Club, May 29.

QUILL TYPE DANCE ALL COLLEGE EVENT

Quill-Type's Annual Dance will take the form of an All-College Sports Dance this year. The entire campus is invited to join with them in the Men's Gym, Friday, April 30, at 8:30. No stags will be allowed, however.

President Michael Johnson states that a program of entertainment is being arranged. A bound program-book will be given each couple.

The dance is to be unusual in many ways. Those who attend are asked to appear in springy sport clothes. They will dance to the tunes (renamed by accounting terms) of Wayne Williams.

Tickets are on sale today through Monday. For information on the dance or tickets, see Mike Johnson or any Quill-Type member.

Dear Editor:

Should we as students be dictated to and treated as grade school stooges? I do not think so—I think that is unnecessary. It is my belief that college students should be treated and looked upon as men and women. Some students should be treated as kindergarten proteges you say? I agree—but those children either “grow-up” or never get beyond their freshman year.

Some teachers assume the role of a dictator. I believe a teacher's statements should appeal to the reason or mind of the student, for a teacher has lost his power when he becomes dogmatic and requires students to believe because he says something is a fact. The student should be taught to develop the faculty of reasoning about every statement. It is my belief that a teacher should always welcome a discussion, (not an argument or a challenge) of his statements, and what I say about teachers applies to parents as well—for are they not also our teachers?

Should teachers be fixed, arbitrary, positive; instead of liberal and tolerant? I say no, emphatically. Tolerance is great; with kindness it is greater! Unfortunately few teachers are endowed with the power to be tolerant or kind. A teacher should be tolerant if the student does not contradict but wants to discuss a statement, and very intolerant if the student wants to make what should be a discussion an argument. Most college professors and instructors should be required to take a course in tolerance, kindness, personality, and (in the case of a certain University within a stones-throw) how to teach.

Disillusionment

When a teacher is fixed, positive, arbitrary, and certain, what student can look up to him or enjoy going to his class? Every class should be a pleasure for not only the student but the teacher as well. How many of your classes do you enjoy attending Mr. and Miss Student? Some, yes. But not many. If you have more than two classes that you like to never cut, then you have a rarity and you had better hang on to those teachers.

Some profs are egotists, hypocrites, and “I am's”. What man or woman likes conceit in others?

Disillusioned Student

Dear Editor:

Might we call the attention of the student body to the marked improvement of the physical condition of the administration building this year. Have you noticed that the walls and ceilings seem lighter, that a sunny day now looks sunny when you glance out the windows instead of leaving you in doubt as to whether it was clouding up—as formerly, that floors are well kept, that the drinking fountains no longer contain more than a week's deposit of gum—thanks to the student body's generosity with their discarded gum, and that the place smells clean. It has been a pleasure to enter the Ad. building lately and we should like to express our appreciation to none other than Arthur Liggett whose interest and diligence have brought about this pleasant change. Would that we had more Arthur Liggett's and Christie Miller's!

Dorothy Martin

Testament League

We are awfully sorry for those who missed being in the “Key” picture but anyway we are grateful for the opportunity for our representation in the Key.

We had a fine meeting last time. After singing songs we enjoyed a short study then proceeded to the Phys. Ed. building for the picture. It seems we conflict with some of the other organizations in having our meetings every other Thursday night so we have planned on two meetings a month. The second and fourth Thursdays. We have only time for three more meetings. Let's finish up strong and be ready for a “real” start next year.

Music Contest

The music contest held at the P. A. building on Friday, April 16, was participated in by 55 high schools from schools of the surrounding country. About 600 students took part in the various vocal and instrumental contests.

The judges of this music contest were Mr. Don Morrison from Oberlin College, Russell A. Lantz from Bluffton, W. H. Lehman from North High School, Columbus, Charles F. Church, Paul Kennedy, and Mrs. Irene C. Moores from Bowling Green State University.

Kohl To Discuss Labor, Capital Crisis

“Today's Crisis Between Capital and Labor” will be the title of an address by Dr. C. C. Kohl for the Westminster Club, First Presbyterian Church, next Sunday evening at 7:00 o'clock. This will be the closing number in the series entitled, “Religion and Present-Day Crises.”

The timeliness of the topic is obvious in view of the continuous present-day strife between industry and labor. Two titanic forces seem to be in conflict and Dr. Kohl will give an analysis which will help to clear the minds of everyone interested in the vital affairs of the day.

Last Sunday evening the club heard a discussion of “Modern Dictatorship and the Threat to Democracy”. In the absence of Rev. Walton E. Cole, who was prevented from being present due to a last-minute emergency, Dr. A. R. Siebens dealt with this topic. He drew on his experience in Germany when he visited acquaintances at the University of Berlin, and discussed Hitler. He also referred to the influences abroad in the United States which constitute a trend toward dictatorship. “The basic cause of dictatorship and its consequent threat to what we call ‘freedom’ is the confusion that has resulted from economic and political uncertainty,” said the speaker.

BETA PI THETA

At a recent meeting of Beta Pi Theta, national honorary French society, the following offices were elected for next year:

President—Loyal Gryting
Vice-Pres.—Frances Woodworth
Secretary—Max Brillhart
Corresponding Sec.—Blanche Ruch
Treasurer—Adeline Smith
Publicity Manager—Elizabeth Harlow
Sentinel—William Frank

Intermediate Club

The Intermediate Club met last Wednesday evening in Gym T. The purpose of this regular meeting was to elect officers for the coming year. Election results were as follows:

President—Dorothy Adams
Vice-Pres.—Eleanor Epley
Secretary—Kathryn Lewis
Treasurer—Jean Willis

Congratulations girls! After the usual business meeting two interesting letters coming from two of our very fine alumni, Dorothy Pace and Anabelle Loe, president of the club during the year 1936-37, were read.

At the close of the meeting an announcement was made that the last meeting of the year would be held May 10 at the Woman's Club in the form of a formal dinner during which time the installation of the new officers would take place.

K. P. CLUB

The Kindergarten-Primary Club held its regular monthly meeting on Wednesday, April 14. The business meeting consisted of election of officers for the year 1937-1938. Betty Geiss will replace Margaret Billings as president; Doris Kerns will be vice president; and Elaine Andrews, secretary-treasurer. The offices of reporter and pianist are left open for selection from the freshman class of next year.

Plans for the annual formal banquet to be held at the Woman's Club were discussed. The date has been changed to May 15, and the banquet committee, headed by Lillian Lay, is making elaborate plans to insure the success of this affair.

Miss West showed the club members the actual certificate received from the national office of the American Education Club, signifying that our K. P. Club is now a branch of the national organization. Club members are free to use any of the helpful and practical literature which the club now receives from headquarters.

Miss Heston, of the Home Economics department, gave a most interesting beneficial lecture on foods and diets. She brought out the difference between food facts and food fads. With the help of food and dietary charts, Miss Heston pointed out how a proper diet pattern can be followed so that the individual receives the necessary amount of vitamins and calories yet can eat until his hunger is satisfied. The girls were allowed to question Miss Heston, and many helpful hints and suggestions were received.

Watch for further announcements about the banquet plans and remember the date—May 15.

W. A. A. Plans Banquet

The W. A. A. is making plans for a banquet to be held at the Woman's Club on May 19. Miss Kathryn Edebrook, who has spoken before at the Woman's club for the foreign language department banquet, will be the speaker.

— SORORITIES —

Sevens

Everything is in an uproar at the house—twelve weeks exams are here again! We certainly are busy. This isn't the only time that we have things to do. We're always busy!

The Sevens are writing a clever news letter to be sent to the alumni members. It contains news of our past school year and includes announcements for next year.

Mary Silva, an alumni, sent a very nice "hello" message to our group recently. We are expecting a large group of alumni members to be present at our annual spring formal May 8.

Strange things have been happening at the house. Bea and Kate are wondering who sewed their sheets together and did many other naughty things. They aren't accusing anyone but believe the finger of accusation points to L. Z. and E.

Our model man has suddenly disappeared. We would be very glad to receive another photo even a real one from one of you boys. We'll take good care of it.

Miss Ruth Howell represented our sorority at the Delhi Formal Dance. We can't understand why some of them were so sleepily-eyed Sunday morning, especially, B. G.

By the way do you know who the Seven's candidate for May Queen is? None other than Valleska Lambertus.

Three Kays

We Three Kays are certainly getting some grand experience when it comes to seeking a position. It gives us a thrill to be able to go out in this world, on equal basis with other graduates, and ask for one. It makes these past four years seem very much worthwhile, if they haven't seemed so before.

We certainly have received a fine group of pledges this semester. I'd like to take this opportunity to name them for you: Isadore Miller, Mary Alys Roode, Violet Brubaker, Genevieve Ridenour, Kathryn Zeigler, Margaret Kaiser, and Sarah Leininger.

We're all getting rather anxious for the 1937 Key to come out. We've sent in some grand snapshots, with Mickey as our excellent snapper. We haven't seen all the proofs but we trust to her good judgment not to make us lop-sided or anything.

Miss Nina M. Beattie, campus training school teacher, missed a few days of school last week due to a sprained ankle.

Phratra

Our members have had more treats this week. You see our pledges have been passing large sacks of candy around and we never refuse the chance of a lifetime. We have sampled everything from gum drops to lolly pops but perhaps we should appreciate the unusual variety. Oh yes! How do you like the green and yellow bows that our pledges are wearing on their shoes? Aren't they quite stylish? We wonder why Margaret Shied, Mariam Bradley, and Lillian Lay look so worried lately! Maybe they enjoy collecting autographs!

Next week is our Formal and we are head over heels in plans. If Old Man Weather just remembers that we want a nice evening, and if Mr. Moon shines as brightly as he can, we'll be sure to do our part to have a grand time.

We wonder if Catherine Beck is worried about having a surprise guest the night of the Formal? You might ask Geneva Shealy and Marian Rife how they like the traffic cop they met? By the way, Una, has the boy friend decided which dress he thinks you look the best in? How many letters did you get this week, Marge?

Five Sisters

We were so proud to have a Five Sister install a Five Sister as president of the Women's League last Wednesday. We think Alene has done a grand job and we know Mary Evelyn will do just as good a one.

If you are interested in some of Alene's other activities—she was secretary of her sophomore class and vice president of the junior. Her virtues are extensive as is illustrated by the fact that she debated, sang in the Glee Club, and is an active member of the Home Economics club. Besides being president of the Women's League this year she was first and second vice president in her sophomore and junior year, and she's been vice president of the sorority as well.

Wesleyers

Race problems turned cultural at the meeting of the Wesley Foundation Sunday evening when "Contributions and Achievements of Other Races" was discussed under the capable leadership of Miss Miriam Bradley. Cultures of Egypt, India, China, Japan, as well as all Europe, South America, and the Negro race were considered. Some of these things rather opened our eyes to what we owe others and make us realize that we are not so superior as we are inclined to think.

On Saturday and Sunday Misses Ruth Hilty and Roberta Bode will represent us at the Youth Conference in Rudolph.

On Sunday, April 25, Miss Louise Ault will have charge of the 6:30 p. m. meeting discussing "Barriers to Racial Progress" and Dr. Zaugg will have the 9:30 a. m. meeting. You are cordially invited.

Commoners

Last week there was a new caned-aristocracy maneuvering about our campus. These maneuvers were put on by our group of pledges. Those of you who attended the assembly program last Wednesday were given the opportunity to view the group together. We have received many compliments concerning the appearance of this group and we wish to pass these compliments to the pledges. This week, perhaps, great stress will be placed upon informality. Many sighs of relief have been heard since the regulations have ceased. However, don't forget those pins and ribbons!

Soon the Commoners will present the all-campus picnic. Last year this event was inaugurated. It included eats early in the evening and then a dance. This proved to be very satisfactory and this year we look forward to a bigger and livelier picnic and dance than before.

Because of our larger group the fraternity is using one of the large office rooms of William Dunipace. However, some complications arise even with a bigger seating capacity. Ask Bill Rothe. However, this seems to have helped us a great deal and our thanks are heartily given to Mr. Dunipace for this favor.

Children of the Training School are planning to have a tea for their mothers sometime in May. They are building the theme for this around Switzerland.

SPRING FOOTBALL SESSION TO END WITH PRACTICE GAME SATURDAY

Abundant Material Assures Fine Contest

Swinging into the final week of the most intensive spring football program in years, Harry Ockerman is grooming his charges in the last days of the spring session, for the grand finale that is scheduled for Saturday afternoon at 2 p. m.

At 2:00 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, the head Falcon will split his forces into two squads and send them against each other for the benefit of the football coaches and students of Northwestern Ohio Schools in a game that will climax four weeks of strenuous drills.

With an abundance of mediocre material, Ockerman should have little trouble in selecting two well-matched squads for the exhibition on Saturday, headed by Johnny Cheetwood, next year's captain-elect, whose work in the spring session has been a standout, and Wayne Stewart, the plunging fullback. Stewart's work is probably the most salient feature of the entire four week drill. Stewart's competitive spirit coupled with his excellent punting and passing has stamped him as the No. 1 fullback for next fall. He has been virtually unstoppable in all the scrimmages and should provide the Ling Falcon with one of the best punters in this section during 1937.

Harvey Newlove, the rough-going tackle, Eddie Siminski, last year's Frosh captain and star, the two little watch charm guards, Dale Herbert and Matt Dotsen seem to dominate the bright spots in the forward wall. Newlove has been the outstanding lineman all spring and along with Siminski, Brentlinger, and Klenner, should give Ockerman a fine quartette of tackles.

Ockerman is offering his second annual football clinic which is scheduled to start at 10 a. m. The clinic consists of demonstrations and discussions on line play by Roy Clymer of Elyria high school, and forward passing by Minor Kershner, coach at Liberty Center high school.

Al Sacksteder, coach of Central Catholic High of Toledo will discuss and demonstrate the short punt formation in high school football while Ockerman will dwell on the technique of the spinner play.

From noon until game time, the student guests will be provided with recreational activities in the men's gymnasium.

The physical education department invites the University out to get a preview of the 1937 gridiron squad and the opportunity to witness the discussions and demonstrations by authorities on the game of football.

SOFT BALL LEAGUE

Softball

We are going to start play next week. Team managers, get your teams organized and ready to go. The schedule of play is made out and it is posted on the board in the men's gym. Spring football will be over and the league can operate at full speed. We plan to play two or more rounds, if time permits.

Mock Mob Meets

(Speakers changed rapidly.)

The sentiments of the fickle crowd shifted with each speaker: Miss Mackan—mother of ten or at least a sympathizer—could draw tears from a stone. Mr. Cryer—judge of a court which had freed John Doe on other charges—was booed off the floor everytime he rose to his feet and cleared his throat preparatory to speaking. (For once Cryer had to shut up!)

The meeting continued with many members participating—the others sat back and laughed, cried, or booed as the occasion demanded. Emerson was adjourned at 8:00 and the mob swept from the hall shouting "To the Jail! We'll lynch the bird!"

The Constant Wife is the best play of one of the outstanding English novelists and dramatists of the present day; it has been very successful on Broadway and in tour. It is an extremely witty comedy, and the many laughs develop naturally from the situations in which the characters find themselves. What should a wife do with an erring husband? Come and see how skillfully one wife answered the question.

Since the heroine of the play becomes an interior decorator after Act II, two attractive stage sets have been designed for the living room of the Middleton home by Irene D. Rose, assistant director.

POLICE VS. CAKE

Have you heard the latest? It seems that the police took two L. A. girls and their boy friends for a ride the other night. Upon hearing about the presence of ice cream and cake at the house, two big policemen proceeded to invade the Las Amigas house. See Sammy (or Virginia) for particulars.

fair to say that Michigan Normal is reputed to spend twice as much on track as football. They are considered good class competition for Ohio State University.
